OMHA Report-Dean

Safe sport needs to be completed and updated. U9 Pathways changes January 15. Goalie sharing is permitted making lateral or advanced moves, Dean just asks that you make him aware. Suggested centres look into used equipment availability for players to explore the goalie position. Promotes learning and possible increase in goalies.

OHF is focusing on big changes to come in the future. The current board has resigned, future board of directors will be voted in on December 17th, 2022.

Parents are encouraged to complete the survey provided by OHF about league starts, try-outs...

U15-U18 pilot project regarding non-body contact Currently Lambeth is interested as Lambton Shores stated they were not.

NEW BUSINESS

Modified Ice ¾ or full ice is being utilized by some. This is against the U9 pathways. Reps are asked to advise local centres to cease this practice. OMHA audit would cause complications.

Shamrock Convenor Todd Ranny is assisting Todd Henderson with the overload.

Face of Mental Health Liz sent a info regard the program if you could forward to your associations and coaches. Seen success in promoting the culture, safe places, healthy boundaries for our youth.

Hats Quote received and estimates on quantity – needs to be ordered and voted on expense. Hats $15.60 each order 250 or more $4 off. Budget is $5000 Assuming 22 hats per team (5 bench 17 players)

Next meeting is scheduled January 18, 2023 7pm at Crabbys in Strathroy
